Celebrating Black History Month

Date and Time: Saturday, February 1 9:00 am - 11:55 pm

Address: Downtown St. Catharines

February is Black History Month!

Join us in #DowntownStCatharines as we celebrate the heritage, achievements, and contributions of Black and Afro-Caribbean communities.

This year's theme Reclaiming Narratives: A Black Resistance highlights Black voices, Black stories of resilience, resistance, success, and cultural pride, and aims to reclaim stolen legacies, ensuring Black voices are heard and honoured.

Programming by Future Black Female, BlackOwned905, the FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre, City of St. Catharines, Public Library, and various community partners includes Workshops, Art Exhibitions, Performances, the Annual Variety Show, and more!

Reclaiming Narratives: A Black Resistance

Date and Time: Monday, February 3 12:00 pm

Address: 50 Church Street and 250 St Paul St

What: Reclaiming Narratives: A Black Resistance (Art Exhibition)

Where: St. Catharines City Hall, Second Floor and The FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre, Joy Williams Lobby

Opening Reception: Feb 3, 2024 at 12 noon, St. Catharines City Hall, Second Floor

Presented in partnership by the City of St. Catharines, Future Black Female, Black Owned 905, The St. Catharines Downtown Association, The St. Catharines Public Library and the FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre.

Reclaiming Narratives: A Black Resistance aims to empower Black voices. This exhibition shares stories as a mode of resistance against the erasure, silencing, and marginalizing of the Black experience. The featured artworks challenge dominant perspectives and bring forward stories that have been marginalized or erased.

Reclaiming Narratives is not just a personal journey but a collective effort. Each piece in this exhibition adds value and richness to the narrative of our collective journey towards a more inclusive culture.

Featured Artists:

Emmanuel Akolo, Jeda Anderson, Glory Inegbedion, Talia Jermyn, Wayne Moore and Teju Oladipo.

Dan Laroche – Manager, Fort George National Historic Site

Friday, February 7, 2025. 11:00 a.m. at Navy Hall

Dan Laroche has been at Fort George since 1988 and has been Manager/Supervisor of Fort George for the past 20+ years. He has done years of research on Fort George and was one of the authors of the new publication “Fort George: A History”. Dan will once again highlight rare and unique artifacts from the collection at Parks Canada that all have something in common, in that they are not common at all. Mostly from the War of 1812, these artifacts will test your knowledge and imagination. Channel your inner “Antiques Roadshow” enthusiast to help answer that age old question: “What the heck is that?!?”

Tickets can be purchased on the Friends of Fort George online store.

Virtue and Vice: Roman oratorio and Venetian extravagance!

Date and Time: Sunday, February 9 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: St. Catharines United Mennonite Church 335 Linwell Road, St. Catharines

Virtue and Vice: Roman oratorio and Venetian extravagance!

A co-production with Capella Intima

Marking our fourth co-production with Capella Intima we present Giuseppe, an oratorio from 1650, discovered in the Vatican Library and attributed to Luigi Rossi. Based on the biblical story of the coat of many colours, this 40-minute, energetic work is scored for five voices, strings, theorbo, and organ. In the second half we feature secular Venetian vocal and instrumental works by Monteverdi, Sances, and their contemporaries - lots more 17th century fireworks incorporating the same themes encountered in Giuseppe: Envy, Injustice, Faith and Charity.

Directed by Bud Roach.

PERFORMERS: Capella Intima: Sheila Dietrich & Ellen Torrie, sopranos; Rocky Duval, alto; Bud Roach, tenor & Artistic Director; David Roth, baritone. Gallery Players: Patricia Ahern & Michelle Odorico, baroque violins; Margaret Gay, baroque cello; Lucas Harris, theorbo; Jonathan Oldengarm, portative organ & harpsichord.

Tickets available on our website $10, $25 or $40 - general seating and you choose price, or Pay-What-You-Choose at the door of the concert.
