Guided Tours of the Fallen Workers Memorial

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 3 6:30 pm - 7:15 pm

Address: 1932 Welland Canals Parkway

138 men died building the Welland Ship Canal between 1913-1935 as a result of dangerous workplace accidents. With a work site unrecognizable by today's safety standards, hundreds of men were injured as they brought one of Canada's most important public infrastructure and engineering marvels to life.

Discover the stories of hard work, danger, and tragedy of the 138 men who died building the Welland Ship Canal with a guided tour.

Meet your volunteer guide at the Museum at 6:30 p.m. and walk down to the memorial, located at the north end of Lock 3.

The tour is available to all by donation and no registration is required. The tour is approximately 30-45 minutes. The tour is fully accessible. All are welcome.

Guided Tours of the Fallen Workers Memorial are a part of the Museum's Open Late series. The Museum is open late until 8 p.m. every Tuesday between Victoria Day and Thanksgiving.

There are no tours on July 8, July 22, and August 26 due to other Open Late events.

Speaking with Pride 2025

Date and Time: Thursday, June 5 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: Brock University

Pride Niagara is partnering with Brock University Professional and Continuing Studies to present the 3rd annual Speaking with Pride Professional Development and Networking Event.

This education session is for 2SLGBTQI+ positive organizations, individuals and allies who want to enhance and / or improve their Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging practices; as well as individuals who want to inspire change in their workplace or advance their career to foster change.

This year's theme for Speaking with Pride is "Welcoming Diversity".

This is a free event. Registration is required.

Attendees will hear from Keynote speaker – Alyy Patel, author, activist and scholar.

About the speaker

Sonali (Alyy) Patel (they / she) is a trailblazing 2SLGBTQI+ activist, creative, and award-winning researcher who has made monumental strides for Queer South Asian Women in North America. Notably, Alyy pioneered research on Queer South Asian Women's issues, being the first to shed light on their unique racial challenges in 2SLGBTQI+ communities. In addition, Alyy solely founded and built from the ground up the Queer South Asian Women's Network — a thriving Canadian non-profit organization.

Learn more about the speaker

Alyy is open to signing copies of her book Don't Tell My Parents: Queer Diasporic Truths available for order on Friesenpress.
